Today, I stud up at 6 o'clock. For breakfast I had a big bowl of cornflaks. On the way to school I saw a dead bird on the street. I only saw the bowel of this little bird. This was a long school day. It ended at 6 p.m. After homework I had football training. Me and my friends had a lot of fun. Back home I had dinner and after that I was soo tired that I went to bed.
