

The Alien School

geschrieben von

I don't know why but today I got up early so I decided to go to school early and do my homework. When I got there, I had a problem with math so I went to the teacher's room to find Mr. Barnaby. I opened the door and was surprised to see that all my teachers were all aliens. Then I closed the door as fast as I could. I run away in my class. The aliens followed me. I was nervous and jumped out of the window. The aliens pushed a button "What is this?" I said. Suddenly I saw pink, green, black and yellow colours around me. Then I was in the year 3104. Everyone looked at me and someone said "Albrecht". Finally was this only a dream. I was happy
