

My Life in Lockdown by Vincent Ptacek.

Life in lockdown
was trash because I can't meet my friends anymore.

We all must stay at home if we don't want to die and we must stay two metres away from each other.

If we go out we must
wear a mask.
Wearing a mask if ok
but it is a bit
unusual.
The fun stuff I can do is hiking, jogging
and cycling. But only with my

parents.
We are not allowed to travel so I can not go to England. I
miss my grandparents very much.
All the restaurants
are closed so I miss
my favourite food
like Knödel and

from Laimer in my
village.
But the lockdown is good for nature.
Their are less cars
and or planes so
little pollution and the animals can live
in peace.

When the lockdown
is over I want to see my friends Stefan, Liang and David
again.
I want to travel to England and Africa.
I want to go to the
cinema to see
Onward.
