

manager and offer happiness coaching, strategy mentoring and English training.

I also wrote in 2012 - “One of my passions is EDUCATION and I am steadily moving in that area to create more access to affordable exciting blended learning by combining access to internet based education and a network of fantastic trainers (now, 2019, under the branding The Learning Street – ” building community based kids education on the street”)

-6-

Happiness Project, as a focal web address for a series of digital ARTverts.This with PH who started Art Project Happiness in 2004, and from my Happiness Coaching since 2006. 2012 I wrote this at 5am in a sunny garden in England at the 25th Anniversary Sports Weekend -

Summer 2012 I was wondering what my purpose is, and set an intention to spend the rest of my life travelling the world spreading happiness. This based on work in happiness field since 2006. Alongside this, to make it sustainable, I am a multi project

-5-

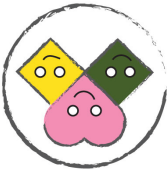

Programs such as CafeD'English, Sunday'sCool and Children's Cinema Club, under the branding of The Learning Street focus on building complementary international education offerings. One dream there is to see a minibook of Ilvie Little in local languages in the hands of every child currently not in education (250 million of them - “OneChildOneBook”) and to gather pictures of kids reading them sitting on the ground on hand sewn patchwork blankets, and resting their heads at night on patchwork pillows. (Now there is a new target popped up for Afrika Taje 2025.)

Adieu!

-7-

membership model of one euro per month!

2008 saw blue sky stuff international kultuerverein formed as a, albeit short lived, legal entity, and the brand lives on. “Inspiring and motivating people to find and follow their passion”. It organised a number of kids and family events in Mödling - Bonfire Night, Halloween, Carol singing

2009 saw the start of the Vienna

-4-

Nigel Stonham, MBA

Spreading Happiness - Connecting People with Passion -- Nurturing Learning Communities / find me on Linkedln XING facebook

www.minibooks.ch

-3-

My first contact in Vienna was T. from the MBA Handbook, a networking first.

Women with Passion and Vienna Hub were both based on experiences in Vienna, firstly with internet cafes and shops, then launch of Wien Web at OUBS, Vienna in July, and then First Tuesday Vienna in September 1999, 5 months after arriving in Vienna. First Tuesday was an incredible experience for me. Venues, people, ideas. Introduced to it at two events in London before coming to Vienna. The circles logo has been important to me. Green for ideas, Red for investors, Yellow for services. Two global city leaders events, one in Budapest, one in Amsterdam. Many fine people, both organisers and guests. If only we had had a

With a room booked at Semper Depot, and a last minute switch to Aux Gazelles, a wonderful panel including S, T, J and B delivered some memorable snippets. The Chinese see the glass as an opportunity to be filled up. If you want to increase Social Capital, just go around and talk to everyone in the room.

-2-

One of my highlights, in 2004, announcing the Women with Passion event, at IT Salon pour elle, with nothing in place, and delivering the event just two weeks later. Purpose, to showcase role models of Women with Passion to others, to inspire and motivate them, as well as to connect them. It led to Vienna Hub in 2005.

Women with Passion

Women with Passion